Against Exclusion NEw trAining Skill Training Course

A.E.NE.A.S. is a 7-day Training Course (TC), under the Erasmus+ programme that will be organised and hosted by CIAS LA Guilla in Palermo, Italy. A diverse group of 30 youth workers (from different ages) coming from 8 countries (Italy, Greece, Lithuania, Romania, Portugal, Slovakia, Latvia and Netherlands) and 8 group leaders will participate. The AENEAS consortium will select youth workers, (5 from Greece, Italy and Portugal and 4 for the other countries) to come to Palermo, Sicily. In total, the TC will total 35 participants from 8 EU countries. Partner countries will select youth workers from different ages or participants with interest in the arts, and participants with migrant background or living in disadvantaged areas in their countries, experiencing social, economic, educational or geographical exclusion. Participants will experience a full immersion of performing arts and non-formal sessions, seven days of activities as follows:

- Energisers, dance and theatre techniques to foster participants' sense of identity as individuals and self-consciousness;
- introduction to themes of migration, anti-discrimination, social inclusion and European awareness to help participants think about a more inclusive Europe, and to take more proactive action at their local level, developing their understanding and experience of European citizenship;
- visits to local centres working with migrant youth or young people with fewer opportunities to develop participants' knowledge of good practices to contrast radicalisation and xenophobia;
- theatre, music and dance as means of intercultural dialogue to develop participants' awareness on discrimination and exclusion through non-formal learning methods namely theatre and creativity;

- understanding personal identity workshop: experiences of migration, inclusion/exclusion to foster young people's sense of identity as individuals and European citizens;
 - Aeneas' myth to fight exclusion and xenophobia and participants' contribution to make them more aware of discrimination and exclusion through non-formal learning methods;
 - Aeneas' myth: final performance set up to celebrate young people's creativity through the staging of this ancient Greek drama, and disseminate the results to other young people with final performance to other youngsters and the local community.
- A.E.NE.A.S. project will use non-formal methods namely theatre, music and body movements to carry out all the foreseen activities. Trainers will conduct sessions using collaborative art-making and creative thinking.

Accommodation and meeting location:

Meeting Location:

The TC will take place at Convento dei Carmelitani (via Giovanni Grasso, 13) in the historical centre of Palermo, “Ballarò” market, to enjoy the city and be in contact with the local community.

Meals

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided by CIAS LA GUILLA except in case of free time at lunch.

What you have to bring with you:

You are warmly invited to bring with you:

- Information materials about your organisations: brochures, posters, manuals, flyers, etc. (anything you want to share!). Please avoid Powerpoint presentations and videos because we are going to present it through the “organisations’ bazaar” method!

--- Info for the local coordinators: please remember to participants from your countries to bring information about their own civil society organisations!---

- Prepare a short research-reflection about social, economic, geographical and other reasons behind the exclusion of youth in your country and study the Greek myth of Aeneas. Please collect all the information you find and bring with you, but you will have time to prepare the presentation in the way we will propose during the TC (you don’t need to prepare a Powerpoint presentation or a paper before).

2 t-shirts: black, white

1 Every organisation will have a space to put their information, simulating a “bazaar”. Then participants will move around the spaces and interact among them to discover more about each one of the organisations.

Free time

- The programme schedule foresees free time every day, and we will also have a free day and free time to visit Palermo.
- During the sessions of training the participation is compulsory.
- There will be free Internet access in common spaces in the hostel, and possibility to print or photocopy materials.

FINANCIAL

What you have to know about the travel and reimbursement:

Travel costs are covered at 100% of the maximum amounts per participant (return ticket) depending on the country of origin. Usually is € 275 for Portugal, Greece, Netherland, Slovakia, Romania, Lithuania and Latvia € 360.

In order to get your reimbursement, please pay attention to the following procedure.

First of all, keep all the tickets you get to prove your expenses (bus tickets, train tickets, electronic flight ticket, travel agency reservations, etc.).

Second: keep all your flight boarding passes (outward and return).

---We cannot reimburse you if we do not receive the details and proofs of your expenses. ---

During the TC we will ask you to provide printed copies of:

- all original tickets and receipts with the price (electronic boarding passes without the price cannot be considered)
- outward boarding pass
- photocopy of your ID card or Passport.

---Please bring it directly with you in Convento dei Carmelitani---

Once CIAS LA GUILLA has all originals, the Financial Department will analyse the documents and do the bank transfer of the travel expenses up to your country allowance. If you have spent less than the maximum amount allowed by country, we will reimburse you 100% of your actual travel costs. The bank transfer will be done after the TC, once we have received the return flight boarding passes.
